

SESSION TWO

Wait For It: Let Them Ask For Advice

Take It In

Take notes as you watch the video.

- Principle #2: Unsolicited advice is usually taken as _____ .
- Keep your mouth _____ and the welcome mat out.
- Them pulling _____ is a part of them growing up.
- We have to _____ for permission.
- The way to build a bridge is _____ and asking questions.

Do not rebuke mockers or they will hate you; rebuke the wise and they will love you. Instruct the wise and they will be wiser still; teach the righteous and they will add to their learning. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.

PROVERBS 9:8-10 NIV

Think It Over

*Pray and reflect on what you just learned from Chip and Jim.
Then work through the following questions at your own pace.*

1. Do you agree that experience is a better teacher than advice? Can you name a situation your child is in right now that you need to step away from?
2. How does the idea of “asking for permission” to give advice make you feel? What step can you take to apply the concept the next time you want to give advice?
3. How can you become a more active listener? What questions can you prepare for your next conversation?
