Think It Over

*Pray and reflect on what you just learned from Chip and Jim.
Then work through the following questions at your own pace.*

1. Have you seen what Jim described as the high cost of money play out in your family relationships?
2. Jim says “I love you” sometimes means saying no. Are you loving your adult children in a way that prolongs dependence?
3. What discussions do you need to have that would strengthen your adult child’s ability to be financially independent?
